

One of the advantages of XM radio is that you can get important information on Traffic and Weather when regular radio service is not available. This could be a life saving feature when traveling cross country. And aid in emergencies when traffic is a problem